Method of Service Delivery

Pomario Private School will, under normal circumstances, render educational services at the school premises at Paul de Villiers Street, R303, Citrusdal. If the school is unable to render an in-house service due to a pandemic, social unrest, a national crisis or circumstances out of its control, educational services will continue online via electronic means.

Details about e-learning classes will be communicated in due time. The minimum requirements would be access to a computer with the MS Office suite, MS Teams and a reliable internet connection at home. An email address dedicated to e-learning activities is advised.

Method of Service Delivery

An aftercare service is available for working parents. A separate application form will be made available for this purpose. The aftercare service is available from the opening date of schools in January till the closing date of the fourth term, excluding the June holidays.

The service is rendered at a yearly rate that is payable in 12 monthly instalments (from January till December). More information will be sent to parents who indicated interest in this service.

Please indicate here if you want more information about aftercare: YES NO

Signatures and Indemnity

We (Names & Surnames), _____ Parents /legal guardians of the learner above, attach herewith a non-refundable registration fee of R450 (or proof of payment thereof) to enrol my child/ children as learner(s) at Pomario Private School for next year. I understand that I will forfeit this fee if I decide not to enrol my child or if I remove him/her from attendance after enrolment. I understand that Pomario Private School is an independent, private, fee paying school that receives no form of grant or subsidy and relies entirely on the collection of school fees to cover salaries and running costs and that the school is therefore not in a position to offer financial assistance.

I/We elect to pay school fees as follows:

1. Annually
2. Monthly per Debit Order
3. Monthly by EFT
4. Monthly: Cash

I accept that my child(ren) attend(s) Pomario Private School at his/her/their own risk and that the staff and management cannot be held responsible for any claims, loss of belongings, damage or injury. I give permission for my child(ren) to attend any excursions/outings arranged and supervised by the head, staff or parents. I accept that photographs of my child may be used from time to time for marketing purposes.

I understand that, if the school is forced by circumstances out of its control to render educational services remotely via e-learning, I/we still have to pay the monthly school fees in order to ensure that the school can continue to render a service and meet its obligations.

Pomario Private School has a Christian ethos and all activities are planned from a Christian perspective. By signing this document, parents accept that children will be educated with these values in mind.

- Please note that both parents must sign this application form.
- Both parents are jointly and separately responsible for the payment of school fees.
- If parents are divorced, this form must be signed by both parents.

This document, once signed, constitute a contractual agreement between the parent(s) and the school.
